Uncle Dan From Democrat River Says

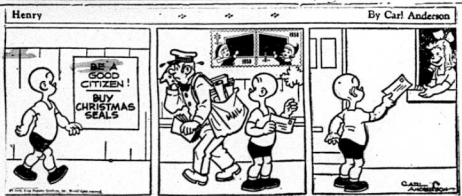

Dear Mister Editor:
 As a general thing my old lady is for womanhood, the P. T. A., her preacher, rummage sales, alarm clocks, hard work and the Constitution. Most everything else she's dubious about, and one of the things she's most dubious about is me writing this little piece for the paper. She claims I don't get much work done around the place afore I started it and now I ain't worth shooting.
 I told her writing for the paper give me a chance to expand.

Stephen Foster captured the nostalgic mood of the South in his never-to-be-forgotten "WAY DOWN SWANEE RIVER" from this famous river which borders Suwannee County on the north, west and south. Although primarily an agricultural center, Suwannee County derives a considerable source of income from livestock. County seat, Live Oak is the livestock market for this thriving industry. We truly salute Suwannee County... celebrating its 100th historic year on December 27, 1958!

In progressive Suwannee County, and throughout Florida, the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of the people of Florida, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing "anti-regulation" program.

Thanksgiving Day Through The Years Had As Rough A Time As The Pilgrims

The Pilgrims would have been shocked to their shoe buckles on December 13, 1951, if they had known that their day of thanks was to become a yearly national holiday celebrated by millions of people in the United States and Canada.

The Pilgrims were dead-set against "annual" holidays, and refused to celebrate even Christmas and Easter.

According to research experts with the World Book Encyclopedia, the Pilgrims referred to the religious holidays of the Church of England as "Roman corruptions." They believed in celebrating only when Providence granted them a particular blessing.

As if to prove their disdain for yearly calendar-fixed celebrations, the Pilgrims did not have a Thanksgiving celebration the next year. However, other New England colonists picked up the idea and held "thanksgiving" usually around the end of November.

The Pilgrim-inspired holiday is today a joyous family day celebrated with big dinners and happy reunions, but the history of the holiday in the United States has been fraught with argument.

In 1789 a resolution was presented by a member of the new Congress proposing that a day be set aside to give thanks for the Constitution. The resolution was finally adopted, but there was much opposition by those who believed the Federal Government was meddling in a matter that should be the concern of the individual states. Thomas Jefferson called such Government-proclaimed holidays a "him what to 'em. I ain't never saw a bachelor that could do nothing as good as a married man that has a wife to tell him what to do and how to do it."

I wouldn't trade my old lady for a dozen like Liz Taylor, and ever once in a while I take her on a little trip to get her mind off my shortcomings. For instance, I took her on a fishing trip the other week, hoping it might improve her thinking along some lines. We stopped at one of them joints along the road to get a bite to eat and she saw some gal in there playing the juke box and doing the rumba and that's all the thinking she's done since. She said this gal wasn't dancing, just trying to wave goodbye to somebody without using her arms.

But anyhow, Mister Editor, it got her mind off me writing this little piece for the paper and I'm safe for another spell. Come spring and I think I'll take her to see one of them bathing beauty contests and that ought to keep her thinking machine busy all way up in the summer, long enough fer me to figger up the next move.

A feller has got to do a heap long distance planning these days if he don't want to lose his old lady, and I shore don't want to lose mine. It's mighty hard to live up to a reputation with your neighbors and live one down with your old lady at the same time.

Yours truly,

day, claiming that Thanksgiving should be inspired by the Deity, not by politicians.
 The most recent Thanksgiving controversy arose when Franklin D. Roosevelt switched the date of the holiday from the fourth to the third Thursday in November. He hoped to help business by making the shopping period longer between Christmas and Thanksgiving. Newspapers and magazines carried editorials advising readers to ignore the President and some Governors flatly advised their states to celebrate Thanksgiving on the traditional day. Three years after the change was made, Congress officially restored Thanksgiving to the fourth Thursday.

In view of this stormy history, it might be well have a Thanksgiving to give thanks for Thanksgiving.

The Lamoureux Return From 7,000 Mile Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lamoureux returned home Friday from an extended trip of six weeks in which they traveled 7,000 miles. They visited an uncle in Robertdale, Ala., and friends in Citronelle, Ala., where the rich oil wells are located, their daughter and family in Olathe, Kansas and Mrs. Lamoureux's sisters in Minnesota where they hunted grouse and pheasants.

In North Dakota they saw wheat being harvested and from there crossed into Canada at the International Peace Garden. The couple reported sunny weather the first several weeks of their trip but heavy frost and ice the last week of their stay in Minnesota.

Den 3 Cub Scouts Go On Tour Of AFB

Den No. 3 Cub Scouts and their Den mother, Mrs. L. D. Keosler, Jr., assisted by Mrs. Aubrey Davis went on perhaps one of the most thrilling experiences of their club scout career, when they toured the Palm Beach Air Force Base last Monday. Conducted on the tour by Captain Miller they were shown life rafts for 20 men or more, parachutes, inspected three deck cargo ships and other interesting sights at the base.

The thrill of the afternoon was an emergency landing, while they were in the control tower. Sirens and ambulances and the usual activity of which they had a birdseye view proved very fascinating. In fact they may have been a little disappointed that it was not a crash landing.

Taking the tour were Den Chief Mike Mikovsky, Larry Keosler, Rudolph Hook, Reid White, Wayne Corbin, Bryant Price, Danny Davis, Teddy Swine and Gene Kicklighter.

Bobcats Continue Undefeated Season Melbourne's Gophers Buried 63-0

Lake Shore High School's Bobcats thrilled a homecoming crowd of nearly 1,000 Friday night and kept the Melbourne Gophers underground as they ripped to a 63-0 victory, the first within one point of an all-time high record for the school, 63-0.

Only once in the history of Lake Shore did the 'Cats score more. They defeated Stuart about five seasons ago 64-0. In Friday night's persecution, Lake Shore worked the second and third string heavily from the second quarter when they led 21-0. Discovering that the Bobcat line wouldn't budge, Melbourne took to the air. All evening they connected on three of 18 passes, none which helped much and four of the 18 were intercepted. They were held to three first downs while Lake Shore got six. Lake Shore could have had more first downs; however, they scored so frequently from the first play from scrimmage.

They gained 361 yards rushing and took 48 in the air as Quarterback Ira Wilson hit two of four. Defensively, the whole team contributed from time to time. Among those who crowded the Stone Hill offense were James Nash, Melvin Lockett, Leroy O'Neal, Earnest Sobiech, Eddie Gainer, Eddie Coleman, Ronald Hughes, John Powell and Ira Wilson.

Leading the ground was Coleman with 153 yards and Vickers with 52. Alfred Eggleston with 91, Wilson 13, and Gordon Golden 57.

1st quarter: Belle Glade received a Melbourne punt on their 33. Hughes scored from the two eight plays later. Vickers' out-of-bounds kick put in play on the 40. Lake Shore recovered a fumble on the 42. Eggleston swept right end for that 42 and another score. On fourth down in the next series of downs, Melbourne had a

JOB AND WORKER

Did You Know...
The Employment Service Division of the State of Florida is a whole new ranks seventh in the United States in the number of people placed in jobs during the past fiscal year.

The Employment Service (Employment Security Program) is almost entirely a personal service program. For example: (1) Workers in all occupations, agricultural and non-agricultural and professions, come into our office for employment assistance. (2) Unemployment Compensation claimants come to the office each week for their Unemployment Compensation benefits, in addition to those coming in to file their claims for benefits. (3) Employers come in or call about their Unemployment Insurance contributions, or to inquire about workers available for job openings they have.

(4) Young people come in for testing, counseling, or to register for work. (5) Veterans and ex-servicemen come in to request their legal preferential services or to inquire about various veteran programs. (6) Older workers and physically handicapped workers come in to obtain services they need.

Clearing House...
Although this is just a partial listing, it gives a clear indication of why Employment Service offices everywhere refer to themselves as a "clearing house" for jobs and for workers in their communities. And with a service operation such as that rendered by the Employment Security Program goes a heavy responsibility: on managers, supervisors and each and every individual employed in the necessary work of helping people. Did you know that in order to keep abreast of the latest methods and information related to performing this personal service work, the Florida State Employment Service carries on a continuous training program (both on-the-job and in formal sessions) for its employees to help them maintain and improve their professional competence.

Belle Glade FSSES Shows Drop In Unemployment Benefits Paid Workers
Improved business conditions brought a 12 percent drop in unemployment insurance payments to many of Florida's jobless workers in October. State Industrial Commission Chairman James T. Vocelle reported this week.

Belle Glade's branch of the Florida State Employment Service which serves the claims was one of 26 in the state reporting decreases in payments, down $8,708 to $18,812. Vocelle reported that decreases were general over the entire state as business began the fall upswing, paid primarily by circuit-connected and seasonal industries. In addition, many workers exhausted their right to collect unemployment insurance benefits, contributing to the drop in payments.

her attendants who were in turn escorted by senior team members. The junior attendant was Oweaser Randolph escorted by Jack Boatwright; sophomore attendant, Mary Lawson, with Amelia Murphy; Miss Junior High was Jacqueline Gordon with William Freeman.

The eighth grade attendant to Miss Junior High was Janet Brumfield with James Nash; seventh grade attendant by Alfred Eggleston.

The Football Sweetheart of the 1958 varsity was Jacqueline Caldwell escorted by Ira Wilson.

As the royalty left the field the band presented "Music to Dance," their theme for the evening with "Swining Shepherd Blues," a tangy selection, the conga and "When The Saints Go Marching In."

Lake Shore's alma mater conduced the program.

Drum Major Willie Glee was wearing his new uniform and the majorettes were in new attire. The Lake Shore Band Parents Organization and other friends were responsible for the new uniforms.
